Founded in 1971, Citizens Committee for the Right to Keep and Bear Arms (CCRKBA) remains dedicated to protecting 2nd Amendment rights for American citizens. For nearly 50 years CCRKBA has played a valuable role in educating the public, growing grassroots activist support, fighting tyrannical legislators and exposing truth to media bias against U.S. gun rights. With over 650,000 members, the organization remains focused on providing programs designed to help Americans understand the role of the 2nd Amendment, and how it keeps American citizens free. CCRKBA appeals to donors who strongly support the 2nd Amendment, and those who value the importance of the Constitution.
