Darryl Glenn for Senate

Retired United States Air Force Lieutenant Colonel Darryl Glenn ran for Senate in Colorado during the 2016 election cycle. He currently represents El Paso County, Colorado as the District One Commissioner. Having a distinguished military background after serving over 21 years in the United States Air Force, Darryl understands the importance of a strong military, national defense and the un-wavering support for our nation's police officers. Being a strong Constitutional conservative, fiscal discipline, cutting government waste and criminal justice reforms are among issues he seeks to address. He is a strong supporter of the second amendment and is pro-life. This list is a must test for all candidates, PAC's, veterans groups, or any general conservative appeal!
