Honeycutt for Congress

Dr. Deborah Travis Honeycutt ran against the Democratic incumbent, David Scott in Georgia's 13th Congressional District during the 2008 election cycle. Dr. Honeycutt's platform for change includes healthcare reform, tighter border security, school choice for education, and pro-legal immigration. She's vocal about being 100% pro-life -- pro-gun -- and anti-tax! Not only is she steadfast with regard to her conservative principles, she is dedicated to bringing the African American community back to its Republican Party roots. Her voice of a unified and growing Republican Party within the African American community is definitely resonating with donors across the entire country. Her donors are generous, conservative and this list would be a great test for any Republican candidate or PAC or "Traditional Conservative Values" organization!!!
